

---

---

If you are a couple in your 50's, 60's or early 70's, you are invited to take part in an insightful and rewarding interview experience.

---

---

Award winning author and journalist Maggie Scarf is the author of a best-selling book on couples, Intimate Partners: patterns in love and marriage. Intimate Partners dealt with couples in their twenties, thirties and forties. Scarf is now starting a follow-up project, a book on couples in their late middle and later adult years.

The new project will be in the nature of an "Intimate Partners II," and will deal with the issues, concerns and challenges that characterize these decades of life. How do couples navigate the novel choices confronting them during these often fruitful, yet little examined years? There is no known book on this subject.

Maggie Scarf has won many awards and fellowships. She has lectured at the Connecticut Society for Clinical Social Work on three occasions, and is also an honoree of the New York State Society of Clinical Social Workers. If you would like to take part in an interesting journey, please contact Maggie by phone or e-mail as listed below. To learn much more about Maggie Scarf and her work go to maggiescarf.com or call 203-776- 9197, or email: maggie.scarf@yale.edu

---

---