BACKGROUND

The Foundation's focus is on funding innovative and translational research in ovarian, uterine, breast or cervical cancer. Translational research is broadly defined as research that will provide a scientific link between laboratory research and the clinic. Ultimately, such research would lead to improvement in diagnosis, prognosis, prevention, or treatment of the cancer.

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to all junior and senior faculty members.
- U.S. citizenship is not required.
- Time required to be devoted to research: not restricted.

FUNDING

- Awards are for a maximum of $100,000 (including 15% indirect costs) over a two-year period.
- Funds can be used entirely in a one-year period, if requested.
- Funds can be used for personnel, supplies, equipment, travel, and other costs related to the scientific project. Equipment and travel costs must be justified.

NOMINATION LIMITATION

Yale may nominate one candidate for this award.
